A Celebration of You

In A Celebration of You, we take a moment to highlight students, staff, and faculty who demonstrate Inclusive Excellence. In this spotlight, we aim not only to celebrate your successes, but to foster more personal connections within the LMU community. This month, OIA celebrates three newly tenured professors in the College of Business Administration, alumni of The PhD Project.

Dr. Angélica S. Gutiérrez Management

Born and raised in the Los Angeles community of Lincoln Heights, Dr. Gutiérrez received her B.A. in Political Science and Sociology with honors from the University of California, Los Angeles, her M.P.P. in Public Policy from the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, and her Ph.D. at the UCLA Anderson School of Management. Currently, Dr. Gutiérrez is an associate professor of Management at LMU. She teaches courses such as Management and Organizational Behavior. Understanding students' need for guidance and mentorship, Dr. Gutiérrez aims to be a source of motivation for her students.

Dr. Mitchell Hamilton Marketing

Dr. Hamilton, originally from San Diego, CA, earned a B.S. in Marketing from San Diego State University, an M.B.A. from Clark Atlanta University, and a Ph.D. in Consumer Behavior from Syracuse University. Dr. Hamilton has been an associate professor of Marketing at LMU since the fall of 2012. Dr. Hamilton teaches courses such as Brand Storytelling and Managing Markets and Customer Relations. Dr. Hamilton has a unique personal vision for his students; he emphasizes the concept of understanding your power (i.e., knowledge, education), and like a super hero, using that power for good.

Dr. Julian K. Saint Clair Marketing

Dr. Saint Clair gained his B.A. in business administration with a concentration in marketing from Clark Atlanta University, his M.S. in business administration from the University of Washington, and his Ph.D. in marketing with a concentration in consumer psychology from the University of Washington. As an associate professor of Marketing at Loyola Marymount University, Dr. Saint Clair teaches courses like Principles of Marketing and Rethinking the Marketplace. He focuses his research on consumer self-concept and information processing as drivers of branding and advertising response, judgment and decision making.
